In the absence of the President, Mr. A. Kuttalingom Pillai, the Vice-President presided.

The Secretary read the minutes of the meeting held on 1st June 1965 and this was passed.

He then read the audited Income & Expenditure accounts of the Club and the Report of the Executive Committee. The President proposed that this may be passed. Mr. P.M. Raghavan seconded and the accounts and report presented were unanimously passed. Mr. C.T. John explained that Mr. K.G. Menon, Principal of the Govt. Polytechnic, had been very helpful in getting the present range site and in the construction of the range and its further activities and that considering his great services to the Club, Mr. Menon deserved election as a Honorary member of the Club. This suggestion was approved by the Committee unanimously and Mr. K.G. Menon was declared elected as Honorary member of the Club during his period of service as Principal of the Govt. Polytechnic.

The meeting decided that considering the fact that the activities of the Club had to be closed down during most part of the year 1966 due to non-availability of cartridges, membership subscription due for the year 1966, be waived.

The meeting terminated at 6.00 P.M.
